Worship Celebration

Easter Sunday

April 17, 2022 + 9 AM

The Easter Season, also known as the Great Fifty Days, begins at sunset on Easter Eve and continues through the Day of Pentecost (this year, on June 5). This is our most joyous and celebrative season and the core of the entire Christian year. Together, we focus on Christ's resurrection and ascension and the continual invitation and call from God to live as Easter people, practicing resurrection by sharing God's renewing love with the world.

Welcome to The United Methodist Church of Berea!

As followers of Jesus Christ, who reveals a God whose love knows no boundaries, we are committed to welcoming and affirming every person as a beloved child of God. Every person—of every sexual orientation, gender identity, ethnicity, age, economic status, health, ability, or any other identifying label—is welcome to participate fully in our ministries and life together as church. We hope The United Methodist Church of Berea will become a home for you, your family, and your friends as together, in our relationship with God, with each other, and with all creation, we make and mature disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Join us in worship, this week and every week:

Sunday at 9AM in-person in the Sanctuary and online (www.facebook.com/umcberea/live)

Sunday at 11AM in-person in Wesley Hall

Monday—Friday at 9AM (Morning Prayer) via Zoom

We Gather as God's Children

Proclamation of the Easter Message—John 20.1-18 (CEB)

¹20 Early in the morning of the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ²She ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they've put him." ³Peter and the other disciple left to go to the tomb. ⁴They were running together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and was the first to arrive at the tomb. ⁵Bending down to take a look, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he didn't go in. ⁶Following him, Simon Peter entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. ⁷He also saw the face cloth that had been on Jesus' head. It wasn't with the other clothes but was folded up in its own place. ⁸Then the other disciple, the one who arrived at the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. ⁹They didn't yet understand the scripture that Jesus must rise from the dead. ¹⁰Then the disciples returned to the place where they were staying.

¹¹Mary stood outside near the tomb, crying. As she cried, she bent down to look into the tomb. ¹²She saw two angels dressed in white, seated where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head and one at the foot. ¹³The angels asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

She replied, "They have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they've put him." ¹⁴As soon as she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she didn't know it was Jesus.

¹⁵Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?"

Thinking he was the gardener, she replied, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him and I will get him."

¹⁶Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabbouni" (which means Teacher).

¹⁷Jesus said to her, "Don't hold on to me, for I haven't yet gone up to my Father. Go to my brothers and sisters and tell them, 'I'm going up to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

¹⁸Mary Magdalene left and announced to the disciples, "I've seen the Lord." Then she told them what he said to her.

Lighting the Christ Candle

In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God.

Through the Word was life, and the life was the light for all people.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness does not extinguish the light.

Let us pray:

Eternal God, Giver of all light and life, bless this new flame and kindle within us a holy desire to respond to your love and grace.

By your grace, set us free from all that separates us from you and from each other;
through Jesus Christ, your Word, our Lord, we pray. Amen.

The light of Christ rises in glory, illuminating our lives, overcoming all sin and death.
Christ, our Light! Thanks be to God!

+ Reaffirming Our Baptismal Covenant

Sisters and brothers in Christ, we are made one with the death of Jesus Christ, and we are raised with Christ and all creation to walk in newness of life through the gift of baptism by water and the Spirit.

The same Spirit who gives us life empowers us with many gifts to serve as new creatures, to renounce all wickedness and resist all evil, to proclaim the good news, to submit to Christ as Lord, and to be joined together as Christ's crucified and risen body, serving as Christ's representatives in the word.

We all start here. The Spirit calls and leads us all. Thanks be to God!
Remember you are baptized, and be thankful! Glory to God! Amen.

Receiving New Members into Our Fellowship

Wendy Tully, Rachel Huth, and Roberta (Robin) Kaiser

As members of Christ's universal church, will you be loyal to Christ through The United Methodist Church, and do all in your power to strengthen its ministries? I will.

As members of The United Methodist Church of Berea, will you faithfully participate in its ministries
by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service, and your witness?
I will.

Members of the household of God,
I commend these persons to your love and are.
Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love.

We give thanks for all that God has given you already,
and we welcome you in Christian love.

As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of The United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

The God of all grace, who has called us to eternal glory in Christ, establish us and strengthen us by the power of the Holy Spirit, that we may live in grace and peace. Thanks be to God.

We Grow in God's Word

Leader: With disciples of every time and place, let us listen for the word of God among us.

People: Our ears and hearts are open.

Scripture Lesson—Acts 10.34-43 (CEB)

³⁴Peter said, "I really am learning that God doesn't show partiality to one group of people over another. ³⁵Rather, in every nation, whoever worships him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶This is the message of peace he sent to the Israelites by proclaiming the good news through Jesus Christ: He is Lord of all! ³⁷ You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism John preached. ³⁸ You know about Jesus of Nazareth, whom God anointed with the Holy Spirit and endowed with power. Jesus traveled around doing good and healing everyone oppressed by the devil because God was with him. ³⁹ We are witnesses of everything he did, both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree, ⁴⁰ but God raised him up on the third day and allowed him to be seen, ⁴¹ not by everyone but by us. We are witnesses whom God chose beforehand, who ate and drank with him after God raised him from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Leader: Christ is risen!

People: Christ is risen, indeed!

Prayers of the People

As we join our hearts to lift our prayers to God, we invite you to share your joys and concerns. You can submit your prayer request any time during the week to Pastor Nathan (440-234-3525 x101, nhowe@umcb.org), the church office (440-234-3525 x100), or online at www.umcb.org/worshipresources.

Opportunities for Ministry and Invitation to Give our Tithes and Offerings

You are invited to give your tithes and offerings online (www.umcb.org/donate), by mailing a check to the church office, or in one of the offering plates located just inside the back wall of the Sanctuary, either on your way into or out of the worship space. Through whatever means you give, thank you for your generosity and ongoing commitment to making and maturing disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world!

Invitation to Communion

Christ invites to the table all who are created in the image of love, who are ready to be made new, raised into a new way of living, and who seek to live as beloved community in peace with one another. Therefore, let us pause to consider and confess all that separates us from God and from each other:

Holy One, you ask for faith and trust; we demand proof and certainty.

Your love is stronger than death; we build tombs around our hearts.

You send us into the world with a message of hope; we linger in comfortable despair.

Heal us, Risen Lord. Forgive us, and set us free.

Open our eyes to see your presence among us.

Open our hearts to perceive the Risen Christ walking toward us.

Fill our hearts anew with wonder, love, and praise.... (silent prayers)

Sisters and brothers, siblings in Christ, we are witnesses to resurrection.

As witnesses, may we find hope in Christ and be assured of God’s grace and steadfast love.

In the name of Christ, we are forgiven.

In the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we are freed to live more fully. Thanks be to God.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Risen One be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you, God of freedom, for you breath life into our chaos and form us in your image.

Out of scattered, separated people, you call us together to be your covenant people.

The presence of your glory goes with us into strange and distant lands, gathering from every valley of despair the flesh and blood of living hope.

And so, with the fullness of your new creation, we praise your name on this Easter Day, joining our voices in that unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and holy is your Word made flesh in Jesus Christ, in whom you confronted all the powers that kill and oppress, speaking to those considered dead and helping them to live again.

Christ taught us to die to self that we might live more fully and freely in and by your grace.

On the night when he gave himself so fully, Jesus gathered with the disciples, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, and shared it, saying:

“Receive, eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me.”

When the supper was over, Jesus took the cup, again gave thanks to you, and gave it to the disciples, saying:

“Drink from this, all of you; this is my life in the new covenant poured out for you and for all for freedom from sin. Do this to remember me.”

Though Jesus gave himself away, tortured, betrayed, and abandoned, yet his life could not be confined by our violence or death.

In the garden, Christ speaks our name.

In the breaking of bread and sharing of a cup, Christ comes to us again.

By the lakeside, Christ calls us to continue love’s work.

Therefore, with all who have lost faith and with all who have persevered, with the women at the tomb and the men who hid in fear, we confess ourselves surprised again by your resurrection power as we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered in your spirit and on these gifts of bread and wine.

Make them be for us the body and blood of the Risen Christ, that we may be the body of Christ for all who yearn for new life.

By your Resurrecting Spirit, make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry and mission to all the world until Christ comes again in glory and we feast in communion at your table.

God of newness and mystery, God of wonder and love,
God of resurrection and new creation,
we praise your name and rejoice in our new life in you.
All honor and glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer following Communion

With gratitude, O God, for the promise and gift of a new creation, we join with your Spirit in recreating our lives and this world by your love.
Where there is despair, let us work for hope.
Where there is defeat, let us work for renewal.
In the name of the Risen Christ, make us and your whole world new. Amen.

+ Benediction

Christ is risen! Christ is risen, indeed!
From darkness and despair, we go now to share hope and joy, for Christ is risen!
Christ is risen, indeed!
From doubt and betrayal, we go now to walk in courage and faith, for Christ is risen!
Christ is risen, indeed!
From suffering and death, we go now to heal a broken world, for Christ is risen!
Christ is risen, indeed!
From uncertainty and worry, we go now to embody for others
our faith that Christ is with us, for Christ is risen!
Christ is risen, indeed!

Morning Prayer (week of Sunday, April 17):

God of endless life,
in the light of this new day
we see the dawning of your new creation.
Give us wonder and delight to enjoy this day that you have made; through Jesus Christ, our living Lord. Amen.

Evening Prayer (week of Sunday, April 17):

Stay with us, Lord, for it is evening and the day is almost done.
Help us to know that you are with us—
through the promise of your Word, in the sharing of a meal,
and by the power of your Spirit that burns within our hearts.
Bless and keep us, this night and always. Amen.

Sunday Afternoon Walk

Sunday, April 24, 4 PM, Bradley Woods (on Bradley Road in Westlake)

Enjoy the beauty of God's creation, both outdoors and in each other! All are welcome to join us as we explore Bradley Woods.

If you plan to join us, please RSVP by Thursday, April 21 to Pastor Nathan at 440-234-3525 x101 or nhowe@umcb.org.

Upcoming Book Discussions

At the heart of our discipleship journey—growing in our love of God and neighbor—is the ongoing challenge and opportunity to perceive ourselves and each other more fully and more truly as God's beloved children. Please join us for one or more of these conversations around books that can help us grow in this sacred work.

Made for Goodness: And Why This Makes All the Difference
by Desmond Tutu and Mpho Tutu

Tuesday, April 26, 6:30 PM, Fellowship Hall

The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness
by Gregory Boyle

Tuesday, May 24, 6:30 PM, Fellowship Hall

To express your interest in participating in any of these discussions please contact Pastor Nathan at 440-234-3525 x101 or nhowe@umcb.org.

Animate: Faith
Sundays, 10 AM, Chapel

The last in the Animate series for this year, we invite you to join us in exploring the foundations of Christian Faith: God, Religion, Jesus, Salvation, Cross, Bible, and Church. Participants will share their questions and explore faith together as they reflect on leading voices in Christianity. Those who have completed the other two Animate series love the journal books that allow you to doodle, color, and “chicken scratch” your ideas. No need to have taken the other two series to participate.

Let Pastor Carrie know if you’d like to join us and would like a book at cantczak@umcb.org or 440-234-3525 x105.

Thursday Night Bible Study
Thursdays, 6:30 PM, via Zoom

Calling everyone who would like to join our new Bible Study on Thursdays. We will be starting Growing Older and Wiser is another LifeGuide Group study. We will discover how God can effectively and powerfully use those who have grown wiser with the passing years. We will be able to have our group study and then some personal reflections on what we have discussed. Please come and join us! Thank You!

For more information and Zoom details, contact Mary Lynn Swartz at marylynn482@gmail.com or 440-409-5931.

Ecumenical Youth Group
Sunday, May 1, 2 PM, Wesley Hall

RSVP for our big Spring event on Sunday, May 1! We’ll be participating in an afternoon of service as we “challenge” other participating churches in a service scavenger hunt! This event will begin at 2 PM, and wrap up with pizza at 5 PM at our church.

Let Pastor Carrie know now that you’d like to participate at cantczak@umcb.org or 440-234-3525 x105. (We also need extra adults to help with this experience!)

UMCB Loves Chipotle! (Chipotle Fundraiser supporting Second Mile Outreach)

Wednesday, April 20, 4 - 8 PM, Bagley Road, Middleburg Hts.

Our generous financial donation, weekly food collection, UMW's shelf sponsorship, and numerous donations assist Street Ministries/Second Mile Outreach in responding to our community's needs. Here's another chance to help - Simply mention Second Mile Outreach when you order or use code TLFA9V8 when ordering for pick-up, and a portion of your cost will benefit our local mission. Thank you for your continued support. Celebrate, donate, and enjoy. Yummy!!

Support Our Local Food Pantries

Donations can be left in the cupboard between the Narthex and the Library

Please place donations of non-perishable food in the cupboard between the Sanctuary and the library anytime you are in the building. (If you need help finding the right location, talk to one of the pastors or other staff.)

If you prefer, please feel free to participate with a monetary donation instead, either by mailing a check to the church office or online at www.umcb.org/donate. Please note "food pantry" on the description line. Thank you for supporting this effort.

Creation Justice Fair

Saturday, April 23, 11 am - 4 pm, Wesley Hall, Fellowship Hall, & Gathering Place

April 23 is almost here and we hope you are getting as excited as we are! If you haven't already visited the Creation Justice Fair webpage at www.umcb.org/creation-justice-fair, we invite you to do so. You'll find lots of information about the event's activities and speakers. If you have seen it, we encourage you to take another look to see what has been updated and added

Questions? Please contact Barb Dawson at 440- 885-1672 or bdawson8531@sbcglobal.net).

We look forward to seeing you at the Fair!!

Help Build Hope Kick-Off

May 8 in Worship with Guest Preacher Michelle Killin-Keith from Habitat for Humanity

We are excited to be getting closer to our Help Build Hope event where we will be constructing a house frame for a future Habitat for Humanity house, July 15-16, right in our parking lot! Registration for helping with the build days is now open! There will be opportunities for all skill and age levels to participate in helping this house come together. Ages 5 and older are welcome. Register at www.helpbuildhope.com/umcberea, and then invite your friends and neighbors to join us!

We will be celebrating the start of this mission in worship on May 8th, during the Festival of the Christian home worship services. Guest preacher Michelle Killin-Keith will share with us inspiration from Habitat for Humanity. In-person registration for the event will also be available, as well as a donation display of love in the gather place.

April's Loose Change Offering will support this mission and Sunday, May 8 will be one our "one big ask" for support in completing this project. We ask that you prayerfully consider your generosity in financially supporting this mission. With the help of local sponsors and this congregation's support, the $15,000 mission will surely bless the future family who will call this house we build, home.
