While our county is at either a “medium” or a “low” community level rating, face masks will be optional in our building. If you are immunocompromised or at higher risk for severe disease, please consult with your healthcare provider about wearing a mask or taking other additional precautions. Higher quality masks, including N95s and KN95s, are especially encouraged as they provide additional protection both to the wearer and to those around them.

If you are experiencing symptoms—including but not limited to a cough, fever or chills, shortness of breath, fatigue, headache, new loss of taste or smell, sore throat, or congestion—please practice caution and stay connected with us from home until your symptoms are ended.

Grow in God's Word

Leader: With disciples of every time and place, let us listen for the word of God among us.

People: *Our ears and hearts are open.

First Lesson - Nehemiah 5.1-13 (CEB)

<sup>5</sup> Then there was a great protest of the people and their wives against their fellow Jews. <sup>2</sup> Some said, "With our sons and daughters we are many, and we all need grain to eat and stay alive."

<sup>3</sup> Others said, "We have to mortgage our fields, our vineyards, and our houses in order to get grain during the famine."

<sup>4</sup> Still others said, "We have had to borrow money against our fields and vineyards in order to pay the king's tax."

<sup>5</sup> "We are of the same flesh and blood as our kin, and our children are the same as theirs. Yet we are just about to force our sons and daughters into slavery, and some of our daughters are already slaves! There is nothing we can do since our fields and vineyards now belong to others."

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard their protest and these complaints. <sup>7</sup> After thinking it over, I brought charges against the officials and the officers. I told them, "You are all taking interest from your own people!" I also called for a large assembly in order to deal with them. <sup>8</sup> "To the best of our ability," I said to them, "we have bought back our Jewish kin who had been sold to other nations. But now you are selling your own kin, who must then be bought back by us!" At this they were silent, unable to offer a response.

<sup>9</sup> So I continued, "What you are doing isn't good! Why don't you walk in the fear of our God? This will prevent the taunts of the nations that are our enemies! <sup>10</sup> I myself, along with my family and my servants, am lending them money and grain. But let's stop charging this interest! <sup>11</sup> Give it back to them, right now. Return their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses. And give back the interest on money, grain, wine, and oil that you are charging them."

<sup>12</sup> They replied, "We'll return everything, and we won't charge anything else. We'll do what you've asked." So I called the priests and made them swear to do what they had promised. <sup>13</sup> I also shook out the fold of my robe, saying, "So may God shake out everyone from their house and property if they don't keep this promise. So may they be shaken out and emptied!"

The whole assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Leader: The word of God for the people of God.

People: *Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson - Nehemiah 2.1-5(CEB)

2 In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, the king was about to be served wine. I took the wine and gave it to the king. Since I had never seemed sad in his presence, <sup>2</sup>the king asked me, "Why do you seem sad? Since you aren't sick, you must have a broken heart!"

I was very afraid <sup>3</sup>and replied, "May the king live forever! Why shouldn't I seem sad when the city, the place of my family's graves, is in ruins and its gates destroyed by fire?"

<sup>4</sup>The king asked, "What is it that you need?"

I prayed to the God of heaven <sup>5</sup>and replied, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor with you, please send me to Judah, to the city of my family's graves so that I may rebuild it."

Leader: The word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

October Worship Series: The Micah 6.8 Challenge

Sundays, October 2 – October 30, 9 am and 11 am

In a season of political polarization and rising social distrust and division, we are called to relate with one another in a different, more life-giving way. We are called to embody, to practice, and to inhabit the beloved community of God.

During the month of October (five weeks leading up to the next national election, on Tuesday, November 8), we will explore and re-commit to the simple yet profound teaching of the prophet Micah who, in a time not unlike our own, wondered what God required of us and discerned this enduring response: ...to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with God.

By God's grace and through our life together as a community of faith, we are able to love our neighbors and to reclaim these three essential practices. Together, on the five Sundays of October, each of us will be invited to reflect on five themes and to share them with our neighbors: October 2—Being Just, October 9—Being Kind, October 16—Being Humble, October 23—Loving Your Neighbor, October 30—Where Religion and Politics Meet

World Communion Sunday

Sunday, October 2

On World Communion Sunday, we partner with other UMC congregations in a special offering to support young adults and make a global impact for Christ. Half of the offering benefits World Communion scholarships for graduate students from the U.S. and other countries. The remainder assists Ethnic Scholarships for U.S. and international undergraduate students in the U.S. and Ethnic In-Service Training. These funds are administered by the General Boards of Higher Education and Ministry and Global Ministries.

The United Methodist Church, the world and our communities are in a time of transition. Together God's church can be a beacon to navigate the ongoing global trauma of the COVID pandemic, the impact of a tumultuous political climate in the U.S. and the anxiety of a looming denominational separation.

Now, perhaps more than ever, we are called to be part of extending healing and hope that can guide us to becoming a new creation in Christ. Through our gifts and support, we partner with God and God's people to strengthen Christ's loving presence in a hurting world. Concentrating our resources to support shared ministries equips us to step into a grace-filled new beginning with faithful determination.

When you give generously on World Communion Sunday, you partner with talented, qualified students from around the globe to transform the world as witnesses for Christ.

Dinner Church "Practice" Meal and Worship

Wednesday, October 5, 6 PM, Wesley Hall

We are excited to be launching a new church experience called "Dinner Church". The mission of Dinner Church is to "build bridges by breaking bread". In short, we are providing a welcoming church experience for those in need of a meal, fellowship, and an introduction to Jesus.

The first Wednesday of each month at 6 PM, we'll open our doors and hearts to neighbors with a delicious meal and casual worship. We're asking our church family to help provide the meal with "staged potlucks", by serving food, and serving as table hosts. Check the Outreach board each month for needed food items and serving opportunities. This October 5 we'll have a "practice" meal and worship. We encourage you to join us and learn more about how you can be a part of this ministry!
